Re: Demand to Cease and Desist Trademark Infringement
(Notice Under 15 U.S.C. Sec. 1114, Sample)

Dear Sir or Madam:

This firm represents Anchor & Co. Home Goods, Inc. ("Anchor"), the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration for the mark ANCHORWOOD (the "Mark"), covering home furnishings and related retail services, in continuous use since 2019.

It has come to our client's attention that Driftline Goods Co. ("Driftline") is using the mark "ANCHORWOOD HOME" in connection with directly competing home furnishings products offered for sale online. This use is confusingly similar to Anchor's Mark and is likely to cause consumer confusion as to the source or sponsorship of Driftline's goods.

We hereby demand that Driftline, within fourteen (14) days of the date of this letter: (i) immediately and permanently cease all use of "ANCHORWOOD HOME" or any confusingly similar variation in connection with the sale or marketing of goods; (ii) remove all infringing listings, packaging, and marketing materials bearing the infringing mark; and (iii) provide written confirmation of compliance with these demands.

Should Driftline fail to comply with the foregoing demands within the stated period, Anchor reserves all rights and remedies available to it, including but not limited to seeking injunctive relief, an accounting of profits, statutory or actual damages, and recovery of attorneys' fees and costs under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 1114 and Sec. 1117.

Please direct any response to this letter, in writing, to the undersigned within fourteen (14) days of the date hereof. Failure to respond within this period will be treated as a refusal to comply, and Anchor will proceed accordingly.

Nothing in this letter, nor any failure to identify every instance of infringement, shall be construed as a waiver of any of Anchor's rights, all of which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,

Devon R. Achebe
